6. Walk More for an Extraordinary Campus Life 不一樣的校園生活 – 步行樂

Want a change to your campus life?

The Walk for Green Campaign Phase III, organized by the Estates Management Office (EMO), supported by Information Technology and Services Centre and Physical Education Unit, will commence on 8th Sep. In this phase, new routes are established from 1) Yasumoto International Academic Park, 2) Pommerenke Student Centre, and 3) Wong Foo Yuan Building to Mong Man Wai Building respectively. Together with existing routes which share the same starting locations and end at Ho Sin-Hang Engineering Building, the entire network enables you to build a healthy and environmental-friendly campus life.

Walking will be recorded by tabbing your ‘CU Link’ on the card readers at both the starting and ending locations. Two points will be awarded for the new routes while the original routes score one point as walking distances differ among them. Staff and students who obtain 120 points between Sep 2014 and Jun 2015 will be nominated as the “Green Walker” (a maximum of four points can be awarded each day). Visit http://www.cuhk.edu.hk/proj/walkforgreen/ for campaign details and check your walking records via https://portal.cuhk.edu.hk or https://cloud.itsc.cuhk.edu.hk/walkforgreen/login.aspx.

Come and join us by walk more in this green and scenic campus! For enquiries, feel free to contact Ms. Chan of EMO at 3943 4444 or doris@emo.cuhk.edu.hk.
